Women Who Dress in Style Know Where Their Wants Can Be Easily Satisfied.

It costs no more to be stylish than to wear a dress which has no fit, no appearance, no hang, and no wear. The fact is that the new fall fashions show quite a change from the styles previously prevailing. The only way to make sure of being in style is to exercise proper judgment as to where to buy. If you buy elsewhere you may, if you buy here you must, get Fashion's

DRUGGIST'S ALLEGED MISTAKE. Suit Charges Henry Evans With Filling Prescription Improperly.

Henry T. Groves and Hattie T. Groves his wife, yesterday filed suit against Henry Evans, an F Street droggist, to recover $10,000 claimed as damages for furnishing "amyl hydrate or other violent poison" instead of 'amylene hydrate," prescribed Groven by her physician, Dr. Harry Hurtt. On November 26, 1960, Mrs. Groves was fill, and Dr. Huritt wrote a prescrip-tion for her calling for one ounce of "amylene hydrate," accompanied by the directions that one drachm be taken in water, and repeated in one hour if re-quired. On the date mentioned, it is ald, the prescription was sent to Churles B. McPherson, a druggist, to be com-pounded. He not having "amylene hyd-rate." it is said, made a copy of the order which he sent to the drug store of Henry

Evans to be filled.

It is further stated that Evans or his employes, instead of furnishing McPherson with amylene hydrate, sent amyl hydrate, which the inter-sent to Mrs. Groves, believing it to be the medicine prescribed by her physician. As a sesuit, it is said. Mrs. Groves became violently ill and had to undergo a surgical operation to effect a care. tion to effect a cure.
